ideas from the Catskills cabin

HOLIDAY STYLE

Set in the Catskills area, about two hours' drive north of New York City, Melanie's home with its painted pale-grey exterior is a picture of modern restrained simplicity. The traditional holiday cabin feel is retained, however, with the handrails, window frames and pergola picked out in white. Inside the home, it's a playful blend of old and new, colourful and tonal, ethnic and American.

INSIDER'S GUIDE TO... GENIE-BOTTLE DECANTERS

The genie-bottle decanters seen on Melanie's sideboard are from the '50s to '70s. Italian producers of alcohol, perfumes and oils used to export their products in these highly decorative containers in an effort to add Euro exoticism. Now difficult to find with matching stoppers, the bottles range in size from about 30cm to over a metre high. Prices are around $80 for small and $120 for mid-sized versions. Extra-large varieties can be up to triple this price. ## THINGS TO SOURCE...

↑ COLOUR PALETTE Melanie's home features a mix of both warm and understated colours. The organic neutrals and the cool shades (as seen in the dining chairs or glass decanters) work in harmony with the flushed pink of the cushions and the earthy tones of the upholstery, artwork and accessories. (Above, from left) Eggshell Acrylic in Carmen, Gelati, Napoleon, Grigio and Ashen, from $39.90-$45.30 per 1L each, from Porter's Paints, 1800 656 664, www.porterspains.com.

↓ MID-CENTURY DINING An American mid-century classic, the 'Executive' chair by Eero Saarinen is used by Melanie at the dining table. This striking design, with its sculptural back, was first released in 1949 by Knoll and later won an Industrial Design award from New York's Museum of Modern Art. The chair is still available today. (Below left) Knoll 'Executive' chair without arms and with chromed metal legs by Eero Saarinen, from $2288, from De De Ce, (02) 9360 2722, www.dedece.com.au.

↓ BUTTON-BACK ARMCHAIRS

With a generously proportioned curved back and cushy fit, this armchair is just the spot for a comfy read. The button detailing adds a handcrafted feel and old-style charm. Raw edge

To prevent the cottage look from becoming too twee, Melanie has added a little rusticity in the form of some semi-industrial items – a wall lamp, a dining table and barstools. They balance well with the colourful and decorative elements in the house.

indian treasures

The ornate detailing of Melanie's daybed would work well with vibrant Indian-fabric cushions, which combine bright colours with exquisite materials. On a similar theme, artefacts from the region, such as painted wooden animals, would add an exotic touch to a room. (Left) Vintage single-sided Swati pillow (on top) $575; Sindhi Kantha hand-stitched cushion, $120; hand-painted wooden animal toy, from $150; brass tealight holder, $50, all from Ruby Star Traders, call (02) 9518 7899 or visit www.rubystar.com.
